WELCOME

March 2011

Welcome to the March 2011 Newsletter, the 195th Sant Jordi tournament played back at the fantastic Montanya on a fine day with dew to start but by the time the guys and gal had reached the 5th hole the sun was fully out and T-shirts and short sleeves were the order of the day. As I was not playing <I took a little time to stride through the woods and came across the following little beauties hidden in the leaves.

The event was contested by 29 players, 12 in category A and 17 in category B with a fine showing from the winners of both categories with the best three in category A shooting better than par but this was bettered by the stars in category B and between them seven players broke par. We are all looking forward to the next event which will be the last of the 2010-2011 season and the biggest event of the year the Sant Jordi Trophy played over 18 holes of stroke-play. We will be on the magnificent fairways and who could hope for better greens than those that Jordi and his team provided for us today. The event will be played on TUESDAY the 26th of April. Please get your names down quickly for this event which thanks to all our sponsors is always the highlight of the year and is also the best attended. We will present the Spectrum IFA Order of Merit prizes and the Roger Hunger Trophy to the winner of Category A together with the Sant Jordi Trophy in Category A and also this year Category B which will now hold Major Status.

In second this week was Dani Medina with 37 including two (and almost 3) spectacular chip in's from off the green. In third place this month was David Coote who scored 36 off his 15 handicap including 5 pars and an eagle on the 15th! Well done to all 3.

The prizes were presented this month by a member from a few years back (and great friend of the group) Colin Campbell. We look forward to having him back in the group in future events. Thanks to Xavier for inviting Colin back. We also had the pleasure of meeting Craig McLaughlan for the first time together with Hans Zelmer. We hope you enjoyed the event and look forward to seeing you all again in the upcoming events.
