Order of Merit position (After May Match)

May Tournament Result.

The May event played under near perfect conditions, somewhat overcast at times with the odd Clap of thunder and slight rain. The course was in the best condition we have seen since it was spiked with just a few fairways still showing signs of the sandy base. Everyone present agreed that the conditions were 'prime' for good golf and this was produced by most of the members. Missing from this event was the top scorer from the April Tournament, Michael Witty and another recent winner, Pau Gomez so both have unfortunately moved down the Order of Merit. Others clearly present but absent in spirit or at least the capacity to put our wishes down the shaft to the head (of the club) were yours truly and Roger Hunger. We both raced in at tent spot and have suffered the consequences for our deeds. Watch out next month...It's the big one...

Order of Merit.

Michael Robson clearly saw the 'writing on the wall' last month when he could not be with us and promptly finished tied second in group A and leaped into the lead above Graham with Yours Present on a not so close as I would like third place. Michael and Graham were good, some might even say very good, but this view was not shared by Albert Sant who put them both in the shade with a splendid 40 points off a 14 handicap.. Well done Albert who also moves up to 11th on the classification. Don't forget that the prize giving will be after the December Tournament so there is still time for most of us. The B Category was won by, I am delighted to say, Jesus Ramos and David English, Jesus taking the prize but sharing the points for the win (41 points and 20 each for the O.O.M) on the better last 9 holes. Well done both of you. Third was Richard rose with 39 points. Jesus has started his merit total in 15th spot, Richard now takes overall 7th while David moves up to 14th.

Clearly upset by my 'clutch problems' I should really have stayed in the Car Park. I was leaking fluid all the way round but still enchanted by the views. Question, Who can identify the location of the background to the newsletter? The first correct answer will get 2 bonus points for your efforts. E-mail me your answer.

So, back to the round. Our three ball saw Steve Watson and Les Buchanan finding most of the fairways. Les was on such good form that he scored 25 on the first 9 holes, but I think the views also got to him (as they do most of us) so we won't mention the second nine. Steve was as consistent as ever and but for just one bad hole would have pared in on an eleven handicap. A pretty good effort, which would have won the scratch prize (if we had one).

New Members

A special welcome to our new members. This month we welcomed David Duckering from 'Strokesaver' and Vicens 'Granados' of 'SkyGolf gps' to the event. They finished 7th and 5th respectively and we look forward to them playing with us again. ...They both did well and in keeping with Sant Jordi tradition, warranted their 'prize balls' which clearly neither really need.

'Mention of the Month'

I'd like to give this to THREE players this month, all deserving the extra two points. They are Albert, Jesus and David, three great rounds and top scoring from them all. Well done chaps!

A very Well deserved thanks' go to:

I know that all those involved in the tournament wish to pass on our thanks to all of the sponsors of the event for their magnificent prizes. All of them made sterling contributions to the event. We are truly grateful and trust that their efforts and assistance to make the event work will prove beneficial and we look forward to counting on their support next year. They in turn deserve our support and I am sure that they all have genuine reason to be pleased with the event.
